In case of a small number of applicants for the part-time study, the Faculty retains the right not to open the study programme.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION

Basic condition of admission

The basic condition for the admission to the bachelor's degree study programme (first degree) is the full completion of secondary education or full secondary vocational education (Higher Education Act, n.131/2002 Coll.). In the case of a foreign applicant or a student who has completed a secondary education abroad, the education is comparable with an education completed by a school leaving examination in the Slovak Republic. Applicant who has completed secondary education abroad will submit along with the application form or more precisely no later than the date of enrolment a document on completion of secondary education recognized by a relevant institution in the Slovak Republic.

Other conditions of admission

1. No entrance exams

Applicants will be admitted to the study without entrance exams if they meet the legal conditions for bachelor's study (see Basic condition for admission) and the number of applicants does not exceed planned capacity. If the applicant has submitted all the required enclosures with the application form, the admission procedure takes place without the personal participation of the applicants.

2. Selection procedure

If the number of applicants for study exceeds the planned capacity, applicants will be admitted on the basis of the selection procedure, during which the study results achieved at completed secondary school will be assessed. From the applicants, a ranking list will be drawn up according to the arithmetic mean of the marks at the year-end report for the penultimate year of study.

Concerning admission, priority will be given to candidates who have completed NPS (SCIO) tests from general study prerequisites or English language in the current school year and have reached at least 60 percent.

If the applicant has submitted all the required enclosures with the application form, the admission procedure takes place without the personal participation of the applicants.

3. Written and oral command of Slovak language or Czech language is required for study at the Faculty. In the study programme Teaching of the English Language and Literature and Citizenship Education, command of English language within the range of secondary school curriculum at least at level B1 according to CEFR is required.

ADMISSION OF FOREIGN STUDENTS

The basic and other terms and conditions of admission are applicable as for the applicants from abroad as for the applicants from Slovakia.

Foreign students who study in a foreign language (i.e. not Slovak), pay the tuition fee as stated in § 92 Subsection 8 (Higher Education Act). The tuition fee is specified by the UNIZA directive for the respective academic year, which can be found on the university website. Foreign students who study in the Slovak language do not have to pay the tuition fee. Applicants from the Czech Republic who want to apply and study in Žilina can use the application form valid in the Czech Republic. For foreign applicants who were accepted on the basis of intergovernmental agreements, bilateral agreements or Slovak government grants, terms and conditions stated in respective documents are applicable

APPLICATION FORM

Application forms are to be submitted for individual study programmes.

In case the applicant is interested in more study programmes, it is necessary to apply for each one individually, including payment of the respective admission procedure fees.

Applicants have to fill in the form Prihláška na vysokoškolské štúdium - 1. Stupeň or they can also use an electronic application form that can be found on the university website: <https://vzdelavanie.uniza.sk/prijimacky/index.php> or on the education portal: <https://prihlaskavs.sk/sk/>. In the case of an electronic application, it is necessary to follow the instructions given in the E-application form System.

In case of incomplete application form, applicants will be requested to complete it.

In the absence of a failure of entrance exams, the Faculty does not refund the admission fee.

If the applicant wants to take part in entrance exams at several faculties of UNIZA or faculty programmes, the application forms must be submitted separately to each faculty and programme with payment of the relevant fee.

Enclosures for the bachelor's degree study programmes (to be sent with application forms):

- Curriculum Vitae,
- proof of payment of the admission fee,
- copies of the year-end reports from secondary school or more precisely confirmation of study results by secondary school in the application form.

Upon completion of the school-leaving examination, applicants will send a certified copy of the school-leaving certificate and a copy of the year-end report from the final year of secondary school study to date, which will be announced to each applicant in writing.
